

Miss E. Taylor Detained to British Naval Officer.
LONDON, July 25.—A marriage has been arranged between Miss Eleanor Taylor, daughter of the late Henry A. Taylor of Bedford, Conn., and Commander Arthur Scott of the Royal Navy, youngest son of Archdeacon Scott of Tunbridge Wells.

Summer Puddings

Farina Jelly or Ice Pudding

Boil two pints of milk and one pint of water; while boiling, sprinkle in slowly one-quarter pound or four large tablespoons of Heckers' Cream Farina; add a little salt; continue the boiling from half an hour to an hour. When done, turn it into a jelly mould and place it on ice or in cold water to stiffen. It may be eaten with wine and other sauce, or cream and sugar. It is very delicious if sliced when cold and fried brown.

Baked Pudding

Boil one quart of milk and one pint of water, and add four large tablespoons of Heckers' Cream Farina. Boil half an hour or more. While the Farina is cooking take three eggs, half a pound of sugar, and a small piece of butter; beat up well with a quart of milk and stir it into the Farina, which should be lukewarm at the time. Add spices if desired. Put into pans and bake.

Cream Pudding

Into one quart boiling water stir slowly one cup of Heckers' Cream Farina. Continue boiling about ten minutes and stir in one cup of whipped cream, four tablespoons sugar. Flavor with almond extract and serve with marshmallows and whipped cream.

Folenta

Into one quart of boiling water stir one scant cup Heckers' Cream Farina. Continue boiling about ten minutes and stir in one cup of grated cheese; stir until melted; pour into mould. When cold, dip in flour and brown in deep hot fat.

MAYOR ASKS STATE TO RESUME CONVEY BEACH TO PUBLIC

Finds the City Has No Jurisdiction and Calls to Attorney General.

SHORE IS THE PEOPLE'S.

Mr. Mitchel Wants Obstructions Removed That Rights May Be Enjoyed.

Mayor Mitchel today sent a letter to Attorney-General E. Woodbury, asking him to take immediate steps looking to the clearing of the Coney Island beach of private encroachments. The Mayor informs the Attorney-General that he will cooperate with him and place all help possible at his disposal.

The action of the Mayor follows a decision recently rendered by the Court of Appeals to the effect that practically the entire Coney Island beach front, between high and low water marks, belongs to the people and not the private concerns that have been monopolizing it undisturbed for many years.

In his letter to Mr. Woodbury the Mayor says:

"As the title to lands under water outside of the average high water mark, except where granted by the Commissioners of the Land Office to upland owners, is vested in the State of New York, such lands under water are under control of State authorities. Neither I as Mayor nor any other city official can legally proceed to remove obstructions therefrom.

"In behalf of the people of the City of New York I would request that steps be taken to cause the removal of all illegal structures so that the public may have the unrestricted use of this foreshore.

"I will be glad to co-operate with you in every way, and, if desired, will place at your disposal such municipal facilities as you may require to the end that the people may use these lands—a right of which they have been so long deprived."

It was Corporation Counsel Lamar Hardy who advised Mayor Mitchel that the City of New York has no right to oust Coney Islanders who encroach on the public beach. In a letter to the Mayor Mr. Hardy says: "The title to the foreshore (meaning the beach between high and low water mark) is vested in the State of New York and is under the exclusive control of the State. Neither the Mayor nor any other city official has any jurisdiction or power to remove obstructions on property owned by the State. This power is lodged in State officers."

"Accordingly I beg to advise you that you can do nothing in the situation respecting land owned by the State which has been encumbered by obstructions, except to communicate the facts to the Attorney General and the State and request that appropriate action be taken to compel the removal of such obstructions."

Kissing Children Lands Man in Jail.

Horn Newcomb, fifty-seven years, of No. 621 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, is in the Raymond Street Jail because of his habit of kissing children he meets on the street. Mrs. Helie of No. 849 Monroe Street, charged that Newcomb, a stranger, kissed her eight-year-old son in the Gates Avenue Court yesterday. Newcomb said he loved all children and was committed for further examination.

A breath of the country is breathed to all those in the city this summer through the gay sport clothes which have become so popular for general wear.

Not content with the latitude allowed them by custom to the country and the seashore, they have invaded the city with full force, so at present it is impossible to tell whether one has just returned from some resort, is just about to go, or is merely spending the summer in the city. But no one criticizes, no one objects, and why should they? Anything which inspires the imagination to such pleasures as do the gay sport clothes should be gratefully appreciated by all, with any slight impropriety of use entirely overlooked.

With one of those charming hat veils which every one is wearing these days, swaying out at the back of a sport hat, a tired city person with a little imagination could almost feel the sea breeze. The sight of these cool, colorful clothes is good, and the best part of it is they are comfortable.

Any number of immensely novel ideas are introduced to give them distinction. Where, except on a sport hat of green satin, could a black

BOY KILLED BY AUTO IN PARK UNIDENTIFIED

Victim Run Down While on Bicycle Decorated With Tiny American Flags.

While $20 of a seventeen-year-old boy's savings are speeding across the water to his mother in Italy, the boy himself is dead at the Memorial Hospital.

His name is believed to be John F. With two small silk American flags flying from the handle-bar of his bicycle he was peddling along the Drive of Central Park near a hundred and Sixth Street last night when an auto struck him and he fell.

He seemed unconscious and William Sinclair of No. 2189 Valentine Avenue, the Bronx, the chauffeur of the machine, took him to the hospital. To be he was the boy was dead.

A money order receipt in the lad's pocket showed he had just sent money home. Other papers indicated that he might have resided at No. 261 West Thirty-ninth Street, but he was not known there. The car was owned by William Woodbine of No. 220 West Thirtieth Street. Sinclair told the police the boy apparently became exhausted in climbing the hill and permitted his wheel to swerve suddenly in front of the machine.

Out of Work, Clerk Tries to Die. Samuel Piazza, twenty-one years old, clerk of No. 20 Monticello Street, Williamsburg, is a prisoner in the Kings County Hospital charged with attempted suicide. Despondent because of his inability to get work, he swallowed poison this morning. Lieutenant Charles Nichols found him on the steps of the Citymer Street station house and gave him an antidote.

tably cut of velvet and a black velvet of which velvet appears merely, each on the end of a long streamer of the green satin.

When the silk sweaters have become a bit ordinary, some more fashionable folks have preferred the blue sport, such as I have pictured at the left. These may be in the same dashing nature as the sweaters, but when worn give that important air which may be in delightful contrast to the crisp little organza frock it covers.

Answers to Queries.

Dear Fashion Editor:

Please suggest color and style for a pretty dress for a young girl to wear with costume.

Am five feet tall, have dark brown hair, hazel eyes, dark complexion and not very much color. What colors become me?

NINETEEN.

Probably white to more becoming to you than any color, though red and rose, brown, dark gray-blue, also shades of green and purple.

Also shades of gray should become you, with an introduction of a lot of rose on the frock. Pale gray-blue lines or white could develop design, with sheer white organza collar and cuffs.

What have been brushed with gray if your complexion is clear some shades of gray should become you, with an introduction of a lot of rose on the frock. Pale gray-blue lines or white could develop design, with sheer white organza collar and cuffs.
